located at 120 Old Hampton Lane in downtown Hampton. The visitor center hours are Monday through Saturday, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m., Sunday 1:00 p.m. – 5:00 p.m. Proof of Hampton residency in the form of an official state identification or residential utility bill must be shared.

Regular admission fees for the Hampton Heat 200 event are $12.00 Adults, $10.00 Military (Active or Retired) and Senior Citizens (60 & Over), $5 children ages 6-12, and free for children age 5 and under. Advance tickets can be purchased in the Larry King Law's Langley Speedway office Monday through Saturday, 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. (at the gate) or at www.langley-speedway.com.

Hampton Heat is one of the speedway's largest races, drawing more drivers and crowds than all others held at the historic track. While the event's purse of $10,000 is a big draw, the chance to compete on the track where racing greats Darrell Waltrip, Dale Earnhardt Jr., and Denny Hamlin began their careers, lures drivers from throughout the Mid-Atlantic and Southeast.

A longtime member of the NASCAR Whelen All-American Series and a NASCAR Home Track, Larry King Law's Langley Speedway is a .395-mile, slightly-banked oval. To learn more about Langley Speedway, fans may call the Speedway office at 757/865-RACE or visit www.langley-speedway.com.

Partially bordered by the Hampton Roads harbor and Chesapeake Bay, Hampton, with the 344,000 sq. ft. Hampton Roads Convention Center and the award-winning Hampton Coliseum, is located in the center of Coastal Virginia and the Hampton Roads metropolitan area. Hampton is the site of America's first continuous English-speaking settlement, the site of the first arrival of Africans in English North America, and is home to such visitor attractions as the Virginia Air & Space Center, Fort Monroe National
