Experience Juneteenth, Day of Remembrance events in Hampton

Hampton, VA - Juneteenth, also known as Freedom Day, will be commemorated throughout Hampton this month with an exciting lineup of festivals, concerts, discussions and a community walk. A Day of Remembrance ceremony will also be held to honor those that lost their life during the Middle passage.

Juneteenth was officially recognized as a federal holiday on June 17, 2021. Additionally, it's the "longest-running African American holiday" having been celebrated since June 19, 1865.

Although President Abraham Lincoln signed the Emancipation Proclamation in 1863, enslaved people in the Southwest weren't aware of their freedom until Union soldiers arrived in Galveston, Texas in 1865 and told them of their fate. More than 250,000 men and women learned of their freedom. Juneteenth parties, gatherings, jubilees, and festivals serve as a reminder of victory over slavery.
