Multi-Instrumentalist Madison Warner Performs Original Indie-Folk Music at the Hampton History Museum October 17

Hampton, Virginia- Multi-instrumentalist Madison Warner performs her original indie-folk music as part the Hampton History Museum's monthly music series on Wednesday, October 17, 6:00 p.m. – 8:00 pm.

Warner performs on 8 different instruments, including guitar, piano, ukulele, mandolin, banjo, harp, cello, and drums. For her performance at the museum, she will be playing the guitar, piano and stomp box.

She has been playing music since she was 8 years old and has been writing her own music since about the age of 12. Her major musical influences include Brandi Carlile, First Aid Kit, Gregory Alan Isakov, and Mumford and Sons.

In October of 2017 she released her first Full length album, "Over Sea & Border." She has worked alongside many respected artists including Ian Randall Thornton, David Soloman formerly of The Last Bison, Olivia Dyer, Fox and The Bear, and The Hunts that have helped and influence her music career. She is currently in the studio working on a new single with producer Rich Mossman to release by the end of this year. Attendees of the museum performance will be among the first to hear this new song.

Admission is free to museum members, $5.00 for non-members. Doors open at 5:30 pm. Beer and wine will be available for purchase. Proceeds support the museum.

Held in the museum's Great Hall on the third Wednesday of the month, the "Front Porch" Music Series presents different genres of music that have shaped the American soundscape and influenced talent in Hampton Roads' vibrant music scene.

The Hampton History Museum is located at 120 Old Hampton Lane in Downtown Hampton. There is free parking in the garage across the street from the museum. For more information call 757/727-1102 or visit www.HamptonHistoryMuseum.org.

Partially bordered by the Hampton Roads harbor and Chesapeake Bay, Hampton, with the 344,000 sq. ft. Hampton Roads Convention Center and the award-winning Hampton Coliseum, is located in the center of Coastal Virginia and the Hampton Roads metropolitan area. Hampton is the site of America's first continuous English-speaking settlement, the site of the first arrival of Africans in English North America, and is home to such visitor attractions as the Virginia Air & Space Center, Fort Monroe National Monument, Hampton History Museum, harbor tours and cruises, Hampton University Museum, The American Theatre, among others.
